Awareness Seminar Starts Today

As part of the Madison College Career Awareness Seminar beginning today and continuing tomorrow, a Career Information Exchange will be held in the North Ballroom of the Campus Center between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Wednesday, October 31.

A number of outstanding representatives from several general career areas will be present to give information and to answer questions about job choice and outlook in each of their areas. Students may participate at any time on Wednesday between 9 and 5 and by moving around to talk to the various area representatives.

Representing the Business and Management area will be Mr. Warren G. Orr who is currently International President of the Society for Advancement of Management of the American Management Association. Mr. Orr is President of Orr, Cuthrell, Fuchs Associates of New York City, which is a private consulting firm that aids individuals seeking placement in management.

The former Director of the National Center for Careers in Education is Mr. Frank Burnett who will be available to discuss education careers. Mr. Burnett is now working in career development at the American Personnel and Guidance Association office in Washington.

Ms. Kathy Naughton who works with the Occupational Outlook Service of the Bureau of Labor will be available to discuss scientific and technical areas of careers.

Possible New System

The Rules Review Committee of the SGA Senate is currently investigating the new College Judicial System and all its related aspects. In accordance with this investigation, the Rules Review Committee would like to hear all suggestions, complaints, compliments, or comments in regard to this system.

You can make your feelings known to the Rules Review Committee through Jeff Hamlin, Box 997 or Steve Ryan, Box 2292, or by coming by the SGA office during office hours. Once again, make your feelings known, and thank you for your cooperation in helping to carry out this task.

Bikers Ride 18 Miles For Cancer Society

APO service fraternity sponsored a Bike Marathon for the American Cancer Society last Saturday morning. The purpose of the marathon was to raise money for donations to the war on cancer.

Out of all those people who signed up to participate in the bike riding event, 60 per cent (25 people) showed up to ride. The course, totalling to 18 miles, stretched from Godwin Hall to Bridgewater and back. It is hoped by APO members that such a bike-athon will be made an annual event.

A spokesman for APO, Dennis Henry, explained that the fraternity had not yet collected all of the donations, but he estimated their contribution to equal over $600.00. He also claimed that Honorable Mention should be awarded to Blair Martin who collected over $140.00 in donations.

Campus Voting Drops To New Low

By CAROL LEMPE

Student Government elections were held last week, and to the disappointment of Parliamentarian Tom Ryan, the voting turnout reached a record low. Out of a student population totalling over 6,000, voters included 160 freshman, 129 sophomores, 80 juniors, and 67 seniors.

Those people who were elected are as follows: from the freshman class, Matt Bright, Kenneth McColley, Sharon Heatwole, Robin Ferree, and R. Temple Mayo; from the sophomore class, Warren Jones, Al Young, and Avra Beth Kaslow; from the junior class, Richard Taliaferro; and from the senior class, David Franklin and Mike Mandeem.

Last Wednesday evening during the weekly S.G.A. meeting, the newly elected Senators were installed into their respective offices. Since each Senator has the responsibility of participating on at least three Student Government committees, President Richard Early named and explained the function of each committee. The new office holders were then given the opportunity to sign up on the committees of their choice. Richard Early also emphasized the fact that all of these committees are open to membership by all students at Madison and that each senator should encourage a wider participation in S.G.A. activities by students not already directly involved.

Other orders of business included reports from the standing committees. The chairman of the Reforms Committee, Leslie Cooke, mentioned that the proposal of students being given a choice between history courses to fulfill basic studies requirements was turned down; however, the History Department has said that it will begin to give Western Civilization exemption tests for History 255 and 256. Those people who pass either or both tests with a grade of "C" will receive credit for the course. During her session with Dr. Dingleline, Leslie also offered the suggestion that a lounge study area be created out of one of the Jackson Seminar rooms. Dr. Dingleline was sympathetic to the idea but said such action would be impossible due to shortage of room space.

Now and Then

By JANICE COATES and LINDA SHAUT

Friday night in Wilson auditorium a capacity crowd was entertained by The Moondogg and Muledeer Medicine Show and by Flash Cadillac and the Continental Kids. The Moondogg and Muledeer Medicine Show, a comedy act, was performed in the outspoken liberal humor of the seventies. Whereas, Flash Cadillac and the Continental Kids show consisted of the nostalgic comedy and music of the swinging fifties.

The pace of the first act was set by Moondogg and Muledeer during an interview before the show:

Interviewer: Do you have any albums?

Muledeer: I have a nice collection of Jethro Tull.

Moondogg: And I have quite a few of the Steve Miller Band.

The pair are now working on their first album which will be recorded live. The material is not rehearsed, instead the act is moved according to the audience's response. Their skits, which covered such subjects as politics, sex, and drugs were met with mixed emotions by the crowd. The comedy act was a liberal change in entertainment at Madison.

With the appearance of Flash Cadillac the crowd was taken back in time to the days of the fifties. However, the group is not representative of the "Ivy League" rock and roll groups of the era; instead, they typify the off the street fifties greaser. Their selections included such songs as "Teen Angel", "Tell Laura I Love Her", "Yakety Yak", "At the Hop," and typical dialogue of the fifties.

When asked how the trend in today's music would affect their popularity, Angelo, one of the Continental Kids, commented, "There's gonna be one audience that will always be there. I'm convinced that once someone likes rock and roll it isn't something they're gonna get sick of. It's a question of whoever has been exposed, is going to keep on liking it."

The audience was immediately receptive to the group. In fact, many came dressed in the styles of the era, and before the concert was over were boogying down the aisles. For most of the students the concert seemed to be a definite success.

On The Lighter Side

By Gregory Byrne

I'm Still Alive

Well . . . it's Sunday and I'm still alive, so I guess that Jeanne Dixon blew it again. That woman has done more to undermine my basic belief in mystics than anyone else I know. In fact, after pondering the situation for awhile, I'm beginning to wonder if perhaps Nixon put her up to it, figuring that the end of the world was an easy way out of his particular mess. Ahh . . . ! thoughts of a new and even more exciting conspiracy in the Nixon Regime . . . but that would mean more hearings and committees and such. But apparently Jeanne could not pull it off, so it looks like we're stuck with the present bleak world situation. If things are always darkest before dawn, then the sun should be at it's zenith any day now. The most frightening thing of all is the Mid East situation. Unless someone controls that stantial quantities of chicken soup and lox. These advisors and observers will be assigned on a 3-to-1 ratio to each member of the Israeli Army. The United States will also provide 350 phantom jets armed with nuclear weapons to serve as supply transportation. This is all in addition to the numerous donations from private organizations such as the newly founded "Gentiles for Golda."

The reaction on Capital Hill was mixed. Jacob Javits (Jew-NY) took the floor to announce his solidarity with the President in what the Senator termed "a courageous and inspiring stand." However, Edward Kennedy (Gentile-Mass.) called Mr. Nixon's move "an exercise in stupidity," and called for a "more realistic policy" in regard to Northern Ireland. Hubert Humphrey (?-?) said that he was "as pleased as punch" with the President's statement.

Meanwhile, in the Vatican, Pope Paul VI appeared to a cheering crowd and called for what he termed "a new crusade." His Holiness went on to say that he would grant a plenary indulgence to any American soldier killed in action in defense of the holyland.

Bitter criticism came from ex-Panther Bobby Seale who called the action "a deves-

Dateline Washington (UPI)
Today President Richard Nixon announced his intention to "make the world safe for Judaism" through his Declaration of War against the Soviet Union, the People's Republic of China, the Arab States, and the Black Panther Party. In the 700 word statement the President warned against "any and all un-Kosher" activities on the part of any of the aggressors against the State of Israel. Mr. Nixon indicated that he would be especially strict in dealing with Black Panther anti-Semitism. The Panthers are well known for their attacks upon Jewish ghetto businessmen and for their insistence upon referring to Hebrew-Americans as "them honky mothers."

The declaration also includes a passage providing for the immediate dispatch of 750,000 military observers to the State of Israel in return for sub-

Flora Crater To Visit Madison

Flora Crater, independent candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governor will be at Madison, Thursday November 1st to discuss her candidacy with Madison Students.

Mrs. Crater, a Falls Church housewife, is no novice to Virginia politics. She has been involved many years in Fairfax County government; and has served on the State Democratic Central Committee since. In 1972, as a delegate to the National Democratic Committee, she worked on the Platform Committee. She is the founder of both the National Organization for Women and the Women's Political Causes in Virginia.

Angered by it's Virginia Legislature's failure to adopt a State Equal Rights Amendment and concerned that Virginia has not yet enacted a minimum wage law or a Fair Employment Practices Law, she decided to run for the office of Lieutenant Governor. Mrs. Crater believes the office should be that of a "citizen's lobbyist" and by running as an independent she hopes to build a natural, more reflective coalition of women, labor, blacks, youth and elderly.

Concerning student rights she stated that the Virginia constitution now gives 18 year olds the right to vote but they cannot hold office. Consequently she recommends this conflict be removed, by amendment if necessary. She supports an educational system with a single standard of excellence and she favors bargaining rights for teachers to achieve and maintain good pay. Mrs. Crater supports the repeal of the state sales tax on food and drugs since it places an unfair burden on low income families.

Considering that only 12% of Virginia's poor receive assistance of any type, she favors an equal pay act, and minimum wage law as the best form of support.

All students are invited to meet and talk with Mrs. Crater at a reception at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday night in the North Ballroom of the Campus Center.

Professor Wins

(CPS) A University of Missouri (UM) professor who was dismissed from his post after lying in the path of the university's marching band in 1970 has been awarded back pay and clearance of his record by the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals.

The professor, Patrick T. Dougherty, had been protesting participation of the marching band in a parade sponsored by the Order of the Veiled Prophet, a racially segregated group.

Dougherty, who is white, had been studying the all-white, private organization and its effects on the local black community since 1966. When the UM band decided to participate in the parade, Dougherty sent a letter of protest, and when that had no effect, he further protested by lying in the path of the band during the parade.

Following his action, Dougherty was suspended from his teaching position. According to his court brief,

THE REVOLUTIONARY AMERICAN EAGLE

By Bill Rechin

Album Grooves

By Purple Fox

The Grammy Award winning George Carlin is back with another party album. As usual his trenchant insights into the particular anomalies of our contemporary mores are live darts of irony and they find their satirical targets with unerring accuracy.

He is the only comedian who can talk about simple things that happen or have happened to you as an adolescent and you suddenly see how terribly funny it is.

On his new album titled "Occupation: Foole" you will learn the meaning of "The Dozens", "Morningside Heights", as well as other important words from the Carlin dictionary as he discusses sunbathing, three types of asses, farts, and other truthful rib ticklers.

Carlin is concerned with truth and humanity, and these basic values shine through all of his humor. Carlin even goes so far as to point out that the religious song "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" combines sex and religion.

His comic masterpieces are built with humorous impact but always flexible and open to sparkling ad-libs. He tells you the importance of Battleground, Michigan as a child, and gives you several possible definitions of Caucasian, such as the name of a shoe style.

The four classic cuts from "Occupation: Foole" are "Child-hood Cliches", "Cute Little Farts", "Filthy Words", as well as the title cut.

The NBC-TV special slated for November 24 (my birthday) will include Mac Davis as host with artists Kris Kristofferson, Tom T. Hall, Patti Page, Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, Anne Murray, and the Earl Scruggs Revue.

From the album "Rural Free Delivery", Eric Weissberg and Deliverance will lift and re-record "Concrete Canyon Boogie" and release it as a single.

Bell Records is shipping "Dawn's New Ragtime Follies" LP to press, complete with straw hat, striped vest and sleeve garters.

Leon Russell leaves soon for a two-month tour of the Far East, and the rumor has it that he's looking for a recording studio. Possibly a new album in the making?

The accidental filming of an actual bomb scare will be included in Don McLean's syndicated TV special, which occurred during the singer-composer's concert at Columbia University in New York last year.

By the year's end a Rolling Stones live album is expected from Atlantic Records.

Artists Itineraries:

Taj Mahal's sessions with Alan Toussaint have been postponed until after the new year.

Mahal's next album featuring help from the Pointer Sisters will be acoustic in nature.

Greene Mountain Records announced that the Rolling Stones' bass player, Bill Wyman, has signed a production deal with them.

Lead singer-composer of Poco, Richie Furay has left the group. Poco announced the group will go as a four-some, but for obvious reasons I believe they will disband entirely.

Nine years ago Maxine Brown tasted success with a single entitled "Oh No Not My Baby." It's now Rod Stewart's single, his first in over a year.

Reliable sources report that Bell Records is releasing a Donovan album. Strange, since Donovan's material usually appears on Epic. Either he has moved his recording contract or this could be earlier material.

Leading the Warner Brother's concert tour in November are the Doobie Brothers and Three Man Army. Both will appear in Richmond on the 17th, and in D.C. on the 18th.

Although no sources point to a new album from Papa he's working with a new group called "Zulu."

he claimed this was done without notice or adequate hearing. Hearings were later held by the Political Science department, the Academic Tenure Committee, and the hearing committee of the UM Board of Curators, all of which recommended that Dougherty not be dismissed for his actions.

The Curators ignored these recommendations and dismisses, precipitating the court battle.

Dougherty's legal expenses were paid by the National Education Association's Du Shane Emergency Fund.

Honk For Guilt

(CPS)--A "Honk for Impeachment" demonstration materialized spontaneously in front of the White House following the firing of Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox. Latest reports indicate the audioprotest is continuing.

Over 150 people gathered in front of the Presidential mansion the evening of October 20, some carrying signs which requested passing motorists to honk their horns if they believe the President should be impeached.

Cars bearing tourists, businesspeople, and police plus taxis, buses, trucks and diplomatic cars responded in an increasing din of horns. One bystander estimated 85% of the vehicles passing down Pennsylvania Avenue as participating in the protest.

A 45 year old man in a business suit who joined the protestors said, "I can't stand it anymore," referring to the President's actions. "This is an outrage."

I'm Still Alive

tating stab at the Black American." Seale's comment came immediately after the arrest of 85 Black Panthers at a party caucus in Oakland, California. Mr. Seale was arrested immediately following his remarks.

We're surprised that they don't claim it cures cancer.

The makers of STP Oil Treatment make it sound like a fountain of youth for old cars and a super tonic for new cars.

They claim it does everything from protecting engine parts to reducing heat, noise, friction, and wear.

They say it's the "racer's edge." Whatever that means. Well, here's what STP Oil Treatment really is.

It's a can of thick goo that makes the oil it's added to thicker.

But if you want a thicker oil, you can just buy a heavier grade of oil (like 40 or 50 weight) in the first place. Or if you want a "multi-viscosity" oil (like 10W-30), you can just buy that, too. And save the expense of STP. For most cars under almost all driving conditions, the right motor oil is all you'll ever need for your car's crankcase.

The very nicest thing we can say about STP Oil Treatment is that it's probably a waste of money. But there are less nice things, too.

STP can change the proportions of chemical additives (detergent, anti-rust, etc.) already formulated in most motor oils, and it can make cold weather starts harder.

Mercedes Benz even says it could invalidate their new car warranties.

Many motor oil manufacturers, including Kendall, Quaker State, Pennzoil and Valvoline, advise you not to use additives like STP.

Even Consumer Reports (July 1971) says you don't need STP. The makers of STP must have forgotten to mention all that. And what do you have on the other side? "The racer's edge." Whatever that means.

The Communications Committee reported that it will investigate the possibility of having teachers inform WMRA on the days their classes will not be held so that students will not have to make any unnecessary trips to a class which will not meet.

Vice President Steve Ryan brought forth a resolution concerning the Graduation ceremony. His position was that since students have the choice of whether or not to attend Graduation, neither should they be forced to wear caps and gowns if they do not so desire. In hopes of deleting this requirement, Ryan's resolution was passed by the Senate.

The last order of business concerned a resolution drawn up by Randy Earl. In short, Randy's proposal called for the student government to submit in writing a request for President Nixon's resignation from the Office of President. The resolution passed, though not unanimously, and Richard Early appointed Randy to write the letter.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned at 7:30 p.m. Students are reminded that S.G.A. meetings are held each Wednesday evening at 6:00 p.m. in Room 114 of the Campus Center and are open to all students.

Study in Scandinavia

Scandinavian Seminar is now accepting applications for its study abroad program in Denmark, Finland, Norway, or Sweden for the academic year 1974-1975. This living-and-learning experience is designed for college students, graduates and other adults who want to become part of another culture while acquiring a second language.

An initial 3 weeks language course, followed by a family stay, will give the student opportunity to practice the language on a daily basis and to share in the life of the community. For the major part of the year he is separated from his fellow American students, living and studying among Scandinavians at a "People's College" (residential school for continuing adult education) or some other specialized institution.

All seminar participants meet at the Introductory, Mid-year and Final Sessions, during which the American and Scandinavian Program Directors work closely with each student on matters related to his studies, experiences and progress. The focus of the Seminar program is the student's Independent Study Project in his special field of interest.

The fee, covering tuition, room, board, one-way group transportation from New York and all course-connected travels in Scandinavia is $3,000. For further information please write to: SCANDINAVIAN SEMINAR, 100 East 85th Street, New York, N.Y. 1002

Mass. Restricts Cheating

(CPS) -- The sale or purchase of term papers is prohibited by a recently enacted law in Massachusetts.

Included in the bill signed by the governor last week was an amendment making it illegal for one student to take a test for another.

The bill states in part, "Whoever sells themes or theses, whoever arranges or assists in their compilation, or makes use of such items or results of studies without giving due reference shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or six months imprisonment or both."

The new law was designed to combat the increasingly wide scale use of term paper and research services in Massachusetts.

Boston University brought suit against ten Massachusetts term paper firms in October, 1972.

Seniors Sell Books

Five 1962 Bluestones will be featured in the Senior Class Used Book Sale Nov. 5 in the Post Office Lobby. The Seniors have been collecting novels, Readers' Digest Condensed Book Series, textbooks, paperbacks and hardbacks to be sold for dimes and quarters. These books were donated by students, families, and faculty.

Other money making projects are for a movie second semester. The money collected will be used to buy a Senior Class gift and donated to Duke Memorial Scholarship and to pay for the Senior Class dinner-dance in April.

Both the Graduation Announcement and Cap and Gown Company have agreed to come back for orders Nov. 15. More information can be obtained by stopping by the Senior Class Office in the Student Union.

Seminar Contd.

From the National Institute of Health, Mrs. Francene Robinson, a College Liaison Representative, and Mr. Winston Wiggins, a College Recruiter for N.I.H., will be present to help students examine health careers as an occupational choice.

The categories of scientific and technical, health professions, education and business-management were chosen to represent rather broad areas of career choice. It is hoped that students will use these well qualified representatives to discuss a number of options they might choose within one or two general areas--thus increasing their chances of having a number of specific career choices available to them.

The Career Awareness Seminar will begin Tuesday night with Dr. John O. Crites speaking on "Strategies of Career Choice." The talk and follow-up discussion will be in Wilson Auditorium and will begin at 8 p.m.

One More Time

The mock election for Governor, Lt. Governor, and Attorney General will be held Thursday, November 1, 9:00 to 5:00, outside Gibbons Dining Hall. The election will be sponsored by Young Democrats, and supervised by Young Democrats, College Republicans and S.G.A.

NSL Wages Air Fares Fight

By KAY JOSLIN

(CPS)--The National Student Lobby (NSL) has launched intensified efforts to retain youth discount air fares with a massive letter-writing campaign to the members of the House Sub-committee on Transportation and Aeronautics.

An order issued by the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) December 5, 1972, required abolition of youth confirmed and standby fares as well as adult and family standby and senior citizens discounts by June 1, 1974.

Abolition of the fares will be gradual, with domestic youth fares climbing to 89% of adult fare on December 3, 1973, confirmed youth fares jumping to 92% of full fare by December 1, and both standby and confirmed fares reaching the adult fare level by June 1, 1974. International youth discount rates will not be affected.

Earlier this year NSL formed a coalition of youth, student and senior citizen groups to lobby for retention of the discount fares. The coalition won a major victory in July when the Senate Commerce Committee approved Senator Warren Magnuson's (D-Wash.) bill, S. 1705, which would allow standby air discounts for persons under 22, over 65, or handicapped. The bill would give the airlines option to offer the discounts.

NSL estimated 10 million young people fly domestically at standby rates each year and predicted the youth fare phaseout will result in a loss of over $50 million to students and their families, plus millions more to the airlines.

Airline executives who oppose youth discounts note wide abuse of the youth fare programs, including use of discount fares by adults over 21.

A spokesman for Frontier Airlines said his airline did not want to discontinue youth fares but, "There isn't much you can do these days that is not discriminatory." He added the discount fares were introduced by the airlines specifically to aid people who were not working, such as students.

A Trans World Airlines official said TWA favors retaining student discount fares, and that if possible students will be given some kind of break when the discount fare is terminated.

According to a United Airlines spokesman, airlines' profits also figure in the CAB's rulings. He suggested the economic returns from youth and other discount fares were not large enough, but the increased revenue from youths paying full fare would result in across-the-board fare cuts for all travelers. The CAB ruling, however, does not require airlines to reduce rates because of increased revenue from youths paying full fare.

CAB chairman Robert Timm has said airline profits are his principal goal as head of CAB.

NSL maintains youth fare is not unjustly discriminatory because students and the elderly have comparatively low median incomes and should qualify for discounts.

The Grandstander

By Van Jenkins

Madison's Outing Club offers students a change of pace in recreational activities. The club gives students a chance to escape the crowded situations of campus life and explore the vast pleasures of nature's primitiveness.

This fall, the Outing Club has involved itself in a wide variety of outdoor activities. Club members have been on trips that give students a chance to enjoy canoeing, tubing, spelunking, mountain climbing, and other outdoor activities.

Each weekend, the club tries to plan activities for its members. Last weekend offers a good example of the Outing Club's typical activities. Last weekend, the club traveled to Seneca, West Virginia to participate in activities held by the Intercollegiate Outing Club Association.

Madison's Outing Club arrived at the meeting Friday at about 7:00 p.m. and joined club representatives from all over the east coast. The outing club enthusiasts camped out Friday night and began their activities Saturday morning. The group split and allowed individuals to follow their own courses. Some people went mountain climbing, some went caving, while others just drove through the mountains enjoying nature's beauty. After club members returned to the campsight after the day's strenuous activities, everyone participated in a big square dance. The festivities lasted for about four hours.

For anyone interested, the Outing Club seems to be a worthwhile proposition. Anyone interested in joining the club's activities is welcome to attend the club's weekly meeting which take place each Tuesday at 6:00 p.m.

Flash Gordon, the club's president can supply any needed information for those interested.

Gridders Lose Home Final

The last home game of the season ended on a sad note as the Dukes were defeated by Massanutten Military Academy 17-6 Saturday evening.

The Dukes, who are now 3-3 on the season, performed far below their usual ability. The offense seemed to be able to move the ball at times but the closer they came to the goal the more mistakes they made. The defense was unable to stop the Massanutten running attack but they were on the receiving end of three turnovers: two interceptions and a fumble.

On Massanutten's first possession they drove from their own 31 yard line to the Duke 9 yard line only to be stopped when they could not convert on a fourth down situation with three yards to go. The Dukes then took over and three plays later were punting. On Massanutten's second play safety Brent Good intercepted a pass and the Dukes had the ball on their own 26 yard line. Again the Dukes had to punt and Massanutten began possession on its own 17 yard line. The Colonels then proceeded to drive 83 yards for the first score of the game. On the next kickoff Mike Atalla returned the ball 45 yards to the Massanutten 47 yard line. Len Fellds then made a diving reception of a Leslie Branch pass and the Dukes had a first down at the 21. Branch hit Gary Leake for another first down at the 10 yard line. That was as far as the Dukes could move and it was 7-0 at the half.

The third quarter opened with the Dukes unable to move the ball and punting. On Massanutten's first play safety Dan Ward intercepted a pass and Madison was alive again with a first down on their own 36 yard line. Again they found themselves punting in four downs. Later in the quarter Massanutten added three more points with a 42 yard field goal. Massanutten scored their final touchdown midway through the last quarter by a series of running and passing plays which began at their own 36 yard line. The lone Madison score came on a series of passing plays with just seconds remaining on the clock. Branch first hit Chip Daringer for a first down at the Duke 43. A pass to John Haire put the ball on the Colonel 42 yard line. Branch then found Leake at the 32 and with just 9 seconds remaining he threw the bomb to Haire for the touchdown. The two point conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

Intercollegiate Archery Shoot

Glassboro State College Archery Club provided the site and management for the sixth annual Eastern Regional Intercollegiate Championships, held on Saturday, October 20th. Collegiate amateur archers from six states, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia, gather annually to determine who will represent the Eastern region at the U.S. Collegiate Archery Championships, held each spring. Dr. Carolyn Addison, Eastern Regional Intercollegiate Archery Program Director and tournament director, announced the 1972-73 Eastern All-Regional Team. Richard Stonebraker won the men's class with a total of 1,002 points. Janet Kemmerer won the ladies division with 844 points. Atlantic Community College won the Men's team title while East Stroudsburg State College won the women's title.

Tech Ties Dukes

By JEFF ATKINSON

Madison ended their winning streak at ten games last Saturday, when the Dukes tied Virginia Tech 1-1. Tying Tech, according to coach Vanderwarker, destroyed any chance of the team receiving an NCAA tournament bid.

An extremely psyched VPI team took the field and Madison appeared to be ready. Official Norman Lord, awarded Tech a penalty kick in the first half and they scored to take a 1-0 lead.

Madison fought back against a team who had gone to playing strictly defense. Jeff Bushman broke their wall and tied the match before the half ended. Earning the assist on Bushman's goal was Billy McArdle.

The second period belonged to the Dukes, as they continually shot at Tech's goal. Their goalie's green outfit had a little Irish in it, as he blicked shots with everything but his hands. When the horn sounded to end the match, it was still Madison 1 -- Va. Tech. 1.

First place in the VISA Western Division still belongs to Madison, but the team must defeat Washington and Lee on Thursday, in order to win the title. The match will be played at home beginning at 2:00 p.m. and is the Dukes last regular season game.

The Community Recreation class will be holding a seminar on interest clubs on the Madison College campus on November 8, 1970, 10:50-1200 p.m., room 336 Godwin Hall. In order for us to successfully conduct this program we will need your participation. We are inviting each club to take part in the program. There will be five minutes available to explain the purpose of the club, the type of membership, the organizational structure and the fees of the club.

There will be an organizational meeting for any women interested in intercollegiate swimming on Thursday, Nov. 8 at 4:00 p.m. in the Godwin pool area.

Walton Wins Cross-Country Meet

By Chuck Lockard

Bill Walton led Logan 2 in the Men's intramural cross country meet held last Thursday as Logan 2 crushed SPE 28-40. In cross country the low score wins.

Logan 2 swept the first three places with Walton, who was also last year's champion, leading the field with a 13:58 time for the 2.4 mile course. Mike Howles and Pat Vines finished second and third respectively. Howles and Vines also ran for Logan 2.

All totaled nine Logan 2 runners competed in the meet. SPE the only other team in the meet was led by Bill Almarode who placed eighth with a time of 16:11.

The meet was very successful in that 38 runners started and 33 managed to finish. Pete Wright and Dean Ehlers presented Walton and the Logan 2 team with a trophy after the meet was over.

Turning now to intramural soccer, GX crushed Sheldon 4-1 and Logan 2 shut out Shorts 3, 4-0 in action in League A on Thursday. Both teams are proving to be powerhouses in League A and should have quite an interesting contest when they meet near the end of the season.

In League B Weaver B rolled over Ashby B 4-0. Weaver B has scored eight goals in two games while Ashby B has yet to score.

The match-of-the-week in League A should be a good one as N-9 takes on Logan 2A. Both teams are presently undefeated and should remain that way until they meet.

In League B the match-of-the-week should be Hanson AB vs. Weaver B. Both teams have high scoring offenses and should have a good match.

MED SCHOOL ADMISSION PROBLEMS?

EuroMed may offer RX via overseas training

For the session starting Fall, 1974, the European Medical Students Placement Service, Inc. will assist qualified American students in gaining admission to recognized overseas medical schools.

And that's just the beginning. Since the language barrier constitutes the preponderate difficulty in succeeding at a foreign school, the EuroMed program also includes an intensive 12 week medical and conversational language course, mandatory for all students. Five hours daily, the course is given in the country where the student will attend medical school.

In addition, the European Medical Students Placement Service provides students with a 12 week intensive cultural orientation course, with American students now studying medicine in that particular country serving as counselors.

Senior or graduate students currently enrolled in an American university are eligible to participate in the EuroMed program.

Resource Center Opens

The Student Government Association has recently opened the Resource Center for the 1973-74 term. Located in Rm. G-8 of the Warren Campus Center, this office houses the Student Print Shop and a branch of the Virginia Employment Commission offering part-time employment opportunities to the Madison community in Harrisonburg and vicinity.

The Print Shop is equipped with duplicating and mimeograph machines available for students' personal and organizational use. Operated by Rose White - Office Hours are - Monday 12-3, Tuesday & Thursday 2-4, Wednesday, 3-5 and Friday 12-2. Students wishing to have copies run off may bring stencils and paper by this office during designated hours or leave them with Mrs. Heath in Room 102 of the Campus Center, to be copied by a rate of 1¢ per 2 pages. In an effort to help those of the student body seeking temporary part-time employment, the SGA has arranged to work with the Virginia Employment Commission in coordinating work opportunities in the Harrisonburg area. Anyone interested may apply at the Resource Center. Applications for which there are no immediate openings will be kept on file and those applicants may be notified throughout the year. Jobs available may include babysitting, gardening, production work, short-order cooks, clerical, waitress, mechanics and others.

London Trip Offered

The Departments of Art and English have announced an eight-day trip to London to take place in January. Intended primarily for Madison College students and carrying, by arrangement, one hour of credit either in Art or in English, it is open to anyone who is interested.

The group will leave from Dulles airport on January 5 and return on January 13. The group will be based in London but will spend one day in Stratford.

Inquiries may be made of Dr. Frank Adams in the English Department, who is in charge of the tour. Total cost, Dulles to Dulles, Dr. Adams stated, will be about $450.00.

Deadline for reservations is December 5.

Infirmiry Survey

Attention, all students who have grievances concerning Madison College's health facilities! A new health services committee has been appointed to study the role and scope of the Madison College Infirmiry. One of its duties will consist of collecting complaints from the students to review the health practices.

Your comments will be reviewed and answers will be published from time to time. Return the survey to Keith Margrey, Box 1725.

Republican National Chairman. He gave a brief but thorough speech on Mills Godwin as opposed to Henry Howell.

Rove discussed Mr. Godwin's past achievements while governor of Virginia. An issue which he emphasized to the audience is Mills Godwin's educational improvement record.

Mills Godwin founded Virginia Commonwealth University and increased George Mason College's status from a two year to a four year school. Rove "commends us as students to cast our ballots for Mills Godwin."

Rove also presented the audience with facts of the various committees that Gov. Godwin formed while in office such as the Virginia Air Pollution Control and the Virginia Crime Study Division. Mills Godwin is interested in conservation and he allotted 16,000 acres of new parkland in Virginia.

Carl Rove feels strongly that Henry Howell stands for the "3 E's": 1) Ego, 2) Expediency, and 3) Elusiveness.

"Ego" because of Mr. Howell's slogan--"This is the year for Henry Howell", "Expediency", because Howell changed his mind on both gun control and the "right to work" law to coordinate with public opinion, and "Elusiveness" because Howell says he's against the "unfair" sales tax on food and drugs but didn't produce even one bill until three weeks before his campaign.

At the end of the meeting Ople Lindsay (the President of Young Republicans at Madison) asked for volunteers to work at the Republican headquarters in Harrisonburg for Mills Godwin. The headquarters is located near Alfred Ney's on Main Street.
